To whom it may concern,

I would like to introduce our company to you and inform you of the upcoming certification assessments that we will be conducting for Waterjet Tech, Inc. in Bridgeton, Missouri. Waterjet Tech, Inc., who is a CNC waterjet cutting company, have applied for and been accepted for the certification process.

We will be conducting the assessment stages to complete the certification process for Waterjet Tech, Inc. to ISO 9001:2015 in April or May of 2017, with an expected completion date of May 19, 2017. We are a registered conformity assessment body for many ISO certifications and are accredited through JAS-ANZ globally. If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to reach out to me as I will be greatly involved with the certification process.

Best regards,
